

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — Mrs. Emma Imse, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

ONE THEORY.

"Pandora's box caused a deal of disturbance."
"I wonder what was in it?"
"I presume a lot of people who wanted to talk during the opera." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Automobilists, Read This.

At the end of the trip when the eyes are stiff and inflamed from wind and dust there is nothing quite so soothing as Doctor Mitchell's Eye Salve. Just a little particle rubbed along the eye lashes brings instant relief. At all drug or general stores or by mail. Price 25c. Hall & Ruckel, N. Y. City.

PECULIAR TO ITSELF.

"What does the baseball reporter do in winter?"
"Nothing," answered the editor. "We can't use his line of language for anything except baseball." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Rough on Rats, unbeatable exterminator.
Rough on Hen Lice, Nest Powder, 25c.
Rough on Bedbugs, Powder or Liquid, 25c.
Rough on Fleas, Powder or Liquid, 25c.
Rough on Roaches, Pow'd, 15c., Liquid, 25c.
Rough on Moth and Ants, Powder, 25c.
Rough on Skeeters, agreeable in use, 25c.
E. S. Wells, Chemist, Jersey City, N. J.

THE FATAL "E."

"Poor Jacy! He never could spell, and it ruined him."
"How?"
"He wrote a verse to an heiress he was in love with, and he wrote 'boney' for 'bonny.'" — New York Journal.

There is no need to suffer with soreness and stiffness of joints and muscles. A little Hamlin's Wizard Oil rubbed in will limber them up immediately.

SAD STORY.

Kind Lady—What drove you from home, my poor man—housecleaning?
Sandy Pikes—No, Mum, me wife bought one of dem new-fangled dresses wid 500 buttons. — Chicago Daily News.

An ounce of jolly goes farther than a pound of advice.

It Was in Arkansaw.

Ople Read told this one not long ago:

"Old Lem Harkins of Possum Trot had come into the county judge's office. The judge said:

"'Why, hello, Lem.'"

"'Howdy, Jedge?'"

"'Anything going on over at Possum Trot?'"

"'Nuthin' wuth dividin'."

"'That so?'"

"'Yeh; nuthin' wuth dividin'."

Then, after a pause: 'Me an' them Hightowehs ain't been gittin' along right good for a spell.'

"'No?'"

"'Nah, not right good.' After another long expectation-punctuated pause, the old man leisurely continued: 'T'other night about chicken-roostin' time I was a settin' in th' house a-readin' uv my Bible when I heahs some shootin' outside. Th' ol' woman was out thah a-feedin' th' chickens. I ain't paid no 'tention t' that thah shootin'. Putty soon th' ol' woman comes in, lookin' kind o' pale an' nahvous."

"'What's th' matteh, ol' woman?'"

I says.

"'A lot o' them Hightowehs is out thah a-shootin' at me,'" she says.

"'Now, I don't like that, Jedge, shootin' 'round about my house an' skeerin' up all them chickens when they orto be a-goin' t' roost, an' may-be killin' a calf critter or somethin'."

So I lays down my Bible an' I goes ovah in th' cohhne an' picks up my Winchester an' I looks out th' window. Thah stands five o' them Hightowehs outside my fence with theh guns. I jes' draps a few bullets amongst 'em an' goes back t' my readin'."

"'Nex' mornin' I goes out an' looks whah them five Hightowehs had been a-standin' an' they was all gone but fo'."

—Chicago News.

A GOOD REASON.

When a Scotsman answers a question he settles the matter in dispute once for all. On a certain occasion the question was asked:

"Why was Mary Queen of Scots born at Linlithgow?"

Sandy Kerr promptly answered:

"Because her mither was staying there"; and there actually seemed to be nothing more to be said on the subject.—Tit-Bits.

A THRIVING NATURE CLUB.

Eight Years Old—So Are Some of Its Members—Others Are Eighty.

The Nature Club of Battle Creek, Mich., is an example of what may be accomplished in any community.

Any person interested in natural history is eligible and welcome to join.

Common interests cement the group, and have held it together for eight years. There is no constitution or by-laws. The club has fifty members, who range in age from 8-years to 80.

There is a membership fee of 50 cents. This pays the rents of the hall where meetings are held once a week during the four winter months. Each meeting begins with a talk on some subject of interest and it is followed by a general discussion.

The club meetings are held out of doors from spring till fall. The region is full of natural beauty, but not anything spectacular. Often small groups go after different things, the club dividing into botanical, geological and bird sections. Often a general meeting is made memorable by a picnic supper around a campfire.

At one such supper the chef was a banker, his first assistant a Judge, says Country Life in America. The president, who is now serving his eighth term, is the editor of a daily paper; one of the keenest of the younger men is a letter carrier. One of the older men is a veteran bee hunter of the region and skilled in all woodcraft.

A feature of the informal after dinner programme on this occasion was a demonstration of the methods of the bee hunter. He had his honey and apparatus, and he succeeded in getting a line to a bee tree.

You can't stretch your word very far without breaking it.
